Fall retreat update:

November 3-5, $1000 deposit has been posted at Camp Burton.

Elizabeth and Martha met to discuss how to structure this fall's retreat. Instead of inviting three leaders, we will ask different regional groups to be in charge of a session. We have the option of five sessions and want to include as many people as possible. The idea is to keep things as easy and familiar as possible. Organizing the weekend would be simple. Perhaps one or two sessions will be hybrid so Canadian/far away people can participate, though we aren't sure about how well internet works at Camp Burton. Martha and Elizabeth are considering visiting the Camp this summer to check out internet setup and strength. We all agreed that we support this "organize by region" concept.

A half-sheet announcement is available to pass out at Leilah Be's retreat.
